

Happy Summer Grassroot Cutters, well we have had a couple days that felt like summer. We are back having shows and the three shows we have had, have been great, with an increase in entries at each show! I would also like to thank the members for great participation in setting up and tearing down at each show.

Our web site is up and running again. Thank you, Beckie Petterson, for all the work you do. Beckie would maybe like to stepdown from managing the website, so if any techie person out there would like to step up and do the web site please contact myself or Beckie.

Our next show July 3, 4 & 5!!! Is at the historic House Creek Ranch!! This is a working cattle ranch. It has been in operation for I don't know how many years, but I remember going there when I was very young visiting my grandparents who spent the summers there baling hay. It is now owned by the Aslett family. Sage and Connie also run an outfitting business, Flying Spear Outfitters and Adventures, from the ranch. The ranch is located 24 miles west of Rogerson, ID.

At this show, it is necessary to increase our entry fees by $10. A jackpot fun show will be held on Friday and our normal show will be held Saturday and Sunday. Jackpot classes will be Open Cutting, Non-Pro Cutting, Amateur Cutting, Open Ranch, Non-Pro Ranch, and Amateur Ranch. Jackpot entry fees will be $75 as well, with $15 being jackpotted back.
